Reference Letter

I am delighted to recommend 7030.studio, who recently created an animated explainer video for our B2B SaaS platform.

From the very first call with Maksym, who patiently answered all our questions about the process, to the day-to-day coordination with Ihor, their Project Manager, the collaboration felt easy, transparent, and enjoyable. We always felt supported and confident that the project was in good hands.

The team handled three rounds of feedback with great professionalism and creativity, each time capturing exactly what we envisioned. They managed to bring the representation of our product to life through animations of visual designs of our web app, a well-structured script, background music, and overall energy.

Beyond delivering a great video, 7030.studio proved to be a truly valuable partner — proactive, reliable, and genuinely invested in our success. The final video became an asset we are proud to use with clients and partners, and the whole process left us with full confidence in their expertise.

I would gladly recommend 7030.studio to anyone looking for a creative and dependable partner to produce high-quality animated videos.
